Buddhist Council of Victoria and other Faith Groups Present...

Meditation Matters.
- Sharing meditation practices of the different faiths -

Sunday August 7th 2011
9:30am to 4:00pm

Prince Philip Theatre, Architecture Bldg,
Melbourne University
On Swanson Street, enter Gate 3 into Masson Rd.

“A multi-faith collaboration of 14 renowned presenters share their insight, experience and knowledge on meditation. Prepare to immerse yourself in vast cultural and faith diversity! This event will be an unforgettable and rewarding experience in meditation.”

FREE EVENT!
To register, visit www.meditationmatters.net.au OR SMS 0412 590 624 your name and contact number.

Morning & afternoon tea are provided. Please bring your own light lunch.
For more information:
www.meditationmatters.net.au

Featuring speakers...

Dr. Amanda Sinclair
Professor of Management (Melbourne University) & Author

Dya Singh
World known Sikh singer/musician & master Sikh hymns interpreter

Dr. Sayadaw Ashin Zanita
Abbot of Kabaraye Buddhist Monastery (Noble Park) & Meditation teacher – Kanni Vipassana Method

Dr Craig Hassed
General Practitioner, Writer, Senior Lecturer (Monash University) & Author

Anja Tanhane
Ordinary Mind Zen Melbourne, Mindfulness teacher, Taichi instructor & Music Therapist

“Zen is about an achieved life...”

Rev. Dr. Father John Dupuche
Parish Priest of Beaumaris and Black Rock, Chair of the Catholic Interfaith Committee, Author & Meditator

Other speakers include Chris Morris, Phil Collins, Bhakta Das, Uncle Reg Blow, Brahmacharini Nivedita Chaitanya, Gabbi Sar-Shalom and members of Shiva School of Yoga

Religions for Peace

ECUMENICAL INTERFAITH COMMISSION

VICTORIAN MULTICULTURAL COMMISSION

Baha'i Council of Victoria